STUDENTS: If you are interested in being a model in a fashion show there is great news: There is still time to get involved. The Maine East Fashion students are in need of models to debut their designs in this year's District 207 Fashion show on Saturday January 27th. If you are interested, please let Ms. Ristow or a fashion student know OR stop by the fashion class this week!

Mrs. Ristow

STUDENTS: All freshmen, sophomores, and juniors: PSAT scores from this past fall are now available through your college board account. If you are having trouble accessing your account, or never created one, please check your email for instructions. If you are still struggling to get access, please see your counselor.

STUDENTS: Go to Panera, on Market Street in Des Plaines, from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm tomorrow, Wednesday January 17, and your purchase will help ME Cares help Hurricane Harvey victims. Don't forget the flier!

Ms. Samlan

FASHION CLUB: Fashion Club will be meeting after school today, Tuesday January 16th. At the meeting students will work in teams to see who can design and make the most creative "outfit" completely out of tissue paper, duct tape, and any other non-fabric item. The teams outfits will be modeled in this year's fashion show! All are welcome and there is no cost to attend the meeting. Refreshments will be served!
